Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Thank you for responding to my last letter so promptly and so courteously. Thanks for answering my latest letter and my letter from a couple of months ago. (To be perfectly honest, I wasn't sure if I had sent the first letter a couple of months ago, as I'm over 40 now and my memory ain't what it used to be! Ha! Ha!)

Could you please tell me how I could go about getting a copy of the teletypes that you mentioned. (See circled items in copy of your letter.) returned

If I can come up with anything other than theories and conjectures on the Mexico City CIA tape, I will be sure to let you know. I am planning on contacting Mr. William Coleman in the near future. Wish me luck!

Take care and thanks! I have enclosed a stamp for your reply.

Regards,

Gary
